

American Fork Locals and Personals

A May fly may have a million descendants by August or September. Swat the fly, and do it early.

Mr. T. S. Broadbent made a business trip to Salt Lake Monday in the interest of the Chipman Merc. Co.

Miss Millie Robinson and Mr. C. E. Rife spent Saturday and Sunday in Salt Lake City.

Miss Letay Logie spent Monday and Tuesday visiting with her sister, Mrs. Bert Timpson, in Salt Lake.

Tango, tango, everything tango. For a few days longer "Joe's Place" will sell those delicious Tango Kisses, with the raspberry centers, at 20c per lb. Try a pound and be a "Come Back."

Miss Bertha Bassett and Mr. Mark Foote were Salt Lake City visitors Sunday.

Mrs. J. R. Murdock of Provo spent Monday and Tuesday here visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. E. Henroid.

Mr. J. H. Storrs and Mr. John W. Chipman autoed to Salt Lake Tuesday in Mr. Chipman's car and spent the day attending to business.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Maan of Montpelier, Idaho, are in American Fork for a few weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Robinson.

The Misses May and Lillie Lloyd, now of Salt Lake City, but formerly of this city, spent the week here visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wagstaff.

Mr. Will Gardner of the Inter-Mountain Insurance company, Salt Lake City, has been visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gardner, a few days this week.

The district Sunday school convention for this district of denominational churches will be held in the Presbyterian church in Spanish Fork today.

Mrs. Ed Firmage left Monday morning for a week's visit with her parents in Park City. Mr. Firmage accompanying her as far as Salt Lake City.

Miss Jessie Green, who is attending school at the B. Y. U. in Provo, spent Saturday and Sunday here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Green.

Mr. Ernest Paxman, who has been teaching in the Big Horn Academy in Cowley, Wyo., the past winter, returned home last Sunday evening. Mrs. Paxman and children having preceded him some few weeks.

All sizes Mazda lamps at "Joe's Place." When your lamp burns out think of "Joe's Place." Open nights till 11 o'clock.

The American Fork Band boys are preparing to give the dance of the season, to be given in the Apollo Hall, Wednesday, May 20. The boys are needing new uniforms, and since they are making such an effort to help themselves we feel that it would be well for everyone to turn out and help them that much, especially in view of the fact that everyone will get their money's worth of good time.

The officers and teachers of the First Ward Sunday School entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Johnson of Salt Lake, Saturday evening, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Charlotte Featherstone, Mrs. Johnson having been a teacher in that organization. The guests enjoyed a very pleasant evening of games and music and a very dainty luncheon was served.

That was some game Wednesday!

Try "Joe's Place" for that Ice Cream Soda or Sundae. The best.

There will be several June weddings. Can you guess who they are?

Don't forget the band boys' dance Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alma Greenwood spent Tuesday in Salt Lake, visiting friends.

Say, fellow, when you are out late tell her the truth—she won't believe it anyway.

Breaking contracts don't pay, and some people have found it very expensive.

The real local baseball season opened Wednesday. Play ball will be the word from now on.

The 1914 eighth grade class of this district spent Wednesday in Pleasant Grove, taking their final exams.

Mrs. Martha Chipman is now home after a pleasant visit with her daughter, Mrs. Will Bodell, of Harriman, Utah.

The eighth grade spelling contest will take place Monday, May 18, in the high school building, at 3 o'clock. First and second prizes will be gold medals, given by Jeweler Martin.

Mr. Tracey Wootton returned home from Salt Lake City Tuesday evening after a successful operation for appendicitis.

This week we printed a large clearance sale bill for the American Fork Co-op, and you will find many bargains thereon. The sale commences today and continues all next week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Adams of Provo, parents of Mrs. Irvin L. Pratt, spent several days visiting friends in American Fork, but left Tuesday for England, where they will spend the summer.

A treat for all at the Opera House, Monday, May 18. We have been indeed fortunate in obtaining for this night the popular drama, "The Witness to the Will." Everybody should see this. A lesson for all.

There is a plaster in the world for every bunion. There's an ointment for the heart-ache and the rash. Just remember when you're schin' there's some fat in all the bacon, and it takes all kinds of dope to make the hash.

In the district court Monday, Ella G. Pulley vs. Milton Pulley, order that plaintiff pay $15 as temporary attorney's fee and $20 per month temporary alimony, pending the termination of the suit.

A social event of the week was the party given by the parents' class of the First Ward in honor of their teacher, J. P. Adeyotte, who left on Tuesday for a mission to the southern states. The entertainment was given at his home Monday evening. An enjoyable time was spent in songs, speeches, etc., and luncheon was served to guests, numbering seventy-five.

A quarantine against Maine potatoes, effective August 1, 1914, has been declared by the United States Department of Agriculture on account of the prevalence of powdery scab in that state, particularly in Aroostook county. After August 1 no common or Irish potatoes can be moved out of Maine except under regulations which the Department of Agriculture will publish shortly.

Mr. C. J. Wright spent Tuesday in Salt Lake City, attending to business.

Mrs. C. G. Wright was visiting in Salt Lake City Tuesday.

Miss Florence Walker of this city spent Saturday and Sunday visiting in Salt Lake City.

Ten cases fresh oranges in today. Those "Sunkist" kind. Thin skins and sweet. "Joe's Place."

Mr. T. F. Corbett, the implement man, has purchased the home formerly owned by E. H. Stout.

Mr. John W. Chipman was down from Salt Lake this week, visiting with his parents.

Miss Alice Miller was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Strong of Salt Lake City a few days this week.

Mrs. Clifton Pierce of this city spent Wednesday in Provo, visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. C. H. Sumner of Provo City visited the local telephone office this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Shelley were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Strong of Alpine, Sunday.

The Symphony Orchestra will entertain the people at the Opera House Tuesday night.

Mr. "Jed" Greenwood was a visitor in Salt Lake Tuesday and Wednesday.

A fine baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Lee, Saturday.

Let us all work and boost for a bigger American Fork. We will feel better and our city will be more prosperous.

Mr. B. L. Bassett of this city has been in Delta for some time because of his health. He is reported much better, however, and expects to return home within a short time.

Money has its value, industry its captain, society its queens, public office its honors, religion its divine inspiration; but the power that makes a city great is the united public spirit of its citizens, and the magnanimous, unwavering loyalty they give each other.

The Misses Rosella Storrs and Emma Greenwood very pleasantly entertained their respective school classes in the Northeast schoolhouse grove Wednesday afternoon. Besides luncheon, the children enjoyed many interesting games. The Misses Josie Greenwood and Sadie Mitchell also entertained their classes in the grove Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. S. C. Schneider very pleasantly entertained about twenty-five members of the Comus Club last Saturday evening. The rooms were made fragrant and beautiful with spring blossoms. Parlor games were the main feature of the evening. Mrs. Joseph Walton carrying off first prize. After the games most delicious refreshments were served.

No investment pays better than a purchase of space in a live newspaper. This is another fact which has not been disputed up to date. These hard facts ought to count with sensible people. Choose a real newspaper that is wide awake, progressive, up-to-date, has a healthy circulation and enjoys the confidence of the people. Prudent buyers are constantly on the lookout for enterprising merchants. Enterprising merchants are the ones who advertise. The ones who advertise are the ones who sell the goods. No one now on earth will dispute this fact. It is hard to get around cold facts.

Mr. Warren Anderson spent Wednesday in Salt Lake City.

Mr. J. S. Wild was a Salt Lake visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. N. M. Ambrose of this city has been quite ill this week with a bad case of grip.

American Fork needs a big factory in order to give employment to her workers.

Mrs. William Elsinore spent Monday visiting with friends in Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Southworth and Mrs. D. C. Adamson autoed to Salt Lake City Wednesday.

Mr. James H. Clarke spent Monday in Hinckley attending to business.

The Misses Eliza Hindley and Josie Greenwood will leave next Monday for an extended trip in the East—mainly Chicago.

Miss Helen Miller of Salt Lake City is visiting in American Fork with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Woodward of Montana were the guests of Mrs. W. C. Preston the forepart of the week.

Miss Eda Cropper, who is attending college in Provo, spent Saturday and Sunday of this week here, visiting with her sister, Mrs. Robert L. Ashby.

Mr. Robert L. Ashby was in Bountiful and Salt Lake Saturday and Sunday, looking after some architectural work there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wright and children of Ogden are spending the week in American Fork, visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Durrant are down from Thatcher, Idaho. They came to attend the recent funeral services of Mr. Durrant's father.

The Sunday school and district school children of Highland enjoyed an outing in the grove last Friday. One feature of the afternoon was a splendid program, consisting of speeches, recitations and songs. After luncheon exciting races of all kinds were run.

E. H. Stout, with Mr. and Mrs. Ras Stringham, motored down from Salt Lake City Sunday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Edmunds. Mrs. Stout has been spending the past ten days with her daughter, Mrs. Edmunds.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stringfellow, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Stout, Miss Grace Stringfellow and Mr. A. R. Stout motored down from Salt Lake City in their auto Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Edmunds of this city.

The B. L. C. S. ladies were entertained by Mrs. J. L. Dunkley Friday afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served and a general good time enjoyed by all. Some of the ladies accomplished much in the way of fancy work.

Mrs. Bernard Christenson delightfully entertained Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Edith Hindley, who is to be one of the June brides. White flowers, most tastefully arranged, formed the principle decorations. Some interesting games were played, after which a light luncheon was served. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Young, Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Young, Dr. and Mrs. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Broadbent, Mr. and Mrs. Mont Bezzant, and the Misses Rosella Storrs, Florence Walker, Edith Hindley, Eliza Hindley, Anna Matteson and Miss Edna Howell. Some very artistic readings given by Miss Edna Howell were greatly enjoyed by all present.

Orient Theatre

The home of good humor.

Always sure to please.

Every Courtesy and Convenience that Will Add to Your Comfort and Pleasure is Found at the ORIENT.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM

Monday

EILEEN OF ERIN—In two parts. A romance of Ireland and a sailor lad.
HER FATHER'S DAUGHTER'S LOVE—The tie that binds the universe is the foundation of this superb dramatic offering.
A MODERN STEEL PLANT—Educational.
TALK OF A TICKET—A screamingly funny comedy.

Tuesday

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING—A charming drama.
MOLLY AND THE OIL KING—A splendid comedy of laughs.
ROSE OF SAN JUAN—A beautiful romance of the Sunny South.
THE PRODIGAL—A great moral lesson and story of self-denial.

Wednesday

THE DANCER—In two parts. A powerful emotional drama, featuring the Thanhouser Kidlet.
A GEM OF LOS ANGELES—Scenic.
THE MISPLACED FOOT—A fun-making comedy that tickles with a tickler.
THE FIRST CASE—A comedy of many funny situations.

Thursday

THE INFORMER—Two part feature. A drama with a strong cast.
SOME ROGUES AND A GIRL—An interesting and exciting comedy drama.
CRUISE—Western drama. One of those Kay Bee thrillers.

Friday

NORTH OF 36—A gripping two reel Western drama.
MRS. PAINHEUR'S PROXY—Comedy. A story of a family feud.
THE MISER'S POLICY—Drama. Teaching a moral.

Saturday

OUR MUTUAL GIRL—More charming than ever before.
GOLDEN GROSS—In two parts. Featuring Mayo Treely.
REBECCA'S WEDDING DAY—A riot of fun from beginning to end.
YOU CAN'T MAKE A MISTAKE BY GOING TO THE ORIENT.
A VARIETY OF SELECT PICTURES OF ALL SORTS.

Mrs. Emma Kirkham of Lehi spent Tuesday in American Fork visiting with relatives.

Messrs. J. H. and J. W. Storrs of this city went to Storrs, Utah, Thursday, to look after their business interests there.

Mrs. Robinson and Kelley spent Tuesday in Provo, where they attended a meeting held by the County Medical Society.

A beautiful baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kannel of Highland Saturday morning. Mother and babe doing nicely.

There has been more transients in American Fork during the last few weeks than the town has known for years. In fact, it has been hard for many to get hotel accommodations.

Mrs. Sadie Henry has been a guest of Miss Cozette Startup of Provo this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Heber were the guests of Mr. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miller, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Len Jackson, who helped to make the American Fork Lake Resort a success last summer, has accepted a position for the summer at the Geneva Resort.

Mr. W. C. Boley and Mr. John Singleton arrived home Tuesday from Nevada, where they are both engaged in ranching.

Choice Cut Flowers

Ferns and Floral Designs.
Send to the Lehi Floral Co., Lehi.
Telephone 20-J. We deliver PROMPTLY.

YOUNG MEN and MEN WHO STAY YOUNG

When You Want a New Suit, the Latest in Hats, Shoes, Underwear, Shirts, Collars, Ties, or in fact Anything Belonging to a Well Dressed Man.

Then Come in and See the New, Clean and Up-to-Date Merchandise You Can Get Here.

The Royal Store

MAIN STREET, AMERICAN FORK

GRADUATES SALE---May Clearance Sale

Begins Sat., May 16th---Closes Sat., May 23rd.

Heavy price reductions in each and every department. 10 to 50 per cent reduction on many lines--odds and ends, broken lots at almost nothing. There will be many saving opportunities each and every day next week---Join your neighbors and get your share of

THE REAL BARGAINS.

American Fork Co-Operative Institution "The People's Store"

Graduating Exercises at Geneva May 20th. To each young lady graduate visiting our store Wednesday morning we will present a beautiful rose.

To each young man graduating we will present one High School watch for all you have to do is to call at the store Wednesday morning.